Church prepares for 100th year

The United Methodist Church of Antioch is preparing for the celebration of its 100th anniversary Nov. 8.

A restoration project on the building erected in 1901 will begin this week. Plans include placing protective glass on the stained glass windows, refinishing pews and altar pieces as well as carpeting and plaster work.

"Keeping and restoring much of what is in the original building" is the aim of the refurbishing project, said the United Methodist

Rev. Stephen Williams.

The centennial celebration will be a community-wide event that is ecumenical in scope, Rev. Williams said.

Present at the anniversary will be Bishop Washburn and District Supt. Dr. Robert Schumm.

The congregation, founded in 1879, met formally in a Baptist church in its present location at that time.

4-H club to entertain PTO

On Sept. 19 the Grass Lake PTO will have its first meeting in the school gym at 7:30 p.m.

The Chain of Lakes 4-H Club will be showing parents, teachers and residents of the district why they were selected to represent Lake County at the State Fair when they present their award winning "Barn Yard Beauty Pageant".

All residents of District 36 are invited to attend and a special feature to senior citizens is being offered. All PTO activities and dues will be one-half price for senior citizens. You do not have to have a child enrolled in Grass Lake School to join

Items to be discussed will be previous and proposed budget, allocation of PTO, funds, calendar of events and refreshments.

The Grass Lake School PTO will meet the first Wednesday of each month. It is hoped many residents of the district will attend.

Announce holiday deadline

The Antioch News will be closed Monday, Sept. 3, in observance of the Labor Day Holiday.

Regular display advertising and news deadlines have been advanced to 5 p.m. Friday, August 31, for the issue of Wednesday, Sept. 5. Advertisers are requested to submit copy for next week as early as possible.

Newstand copies of next week's News will be available Tuesday afternoon as usual. Mail copies will be delivered Wednesday.

Trustees consider new sewer policy

The Antioch Village Board in committee discussed beginning a get tough policy to prevent residents from having storm sewers hooked up to the sanitary sewer system.

The illegal hookups have caused a backup of sewage into basements during heavy rains.

The board is waiting to hear from Donohue and Associates, an engineering firm currently examining the village sewer system and the village engineer.

"There is no reason we can't enforce the orders (according to ordinances)," said

Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz. "You can go in every house and inspect if you want to," she said.

"I think it's about time we enforced our laws," said Trustee Vern (Barney) Barnstable.

"The ordinance is there—all we have to do is get tough," Trustee Edgar Simonsen said.

IN THE PAST, the village made inspections and gave first violation notices, but "never pursued it further," said Supt. of Public Works Walter Shepard. "The board has to be willing to take the final step."

ATTEND MEETING — Gene Hergott, left, and Brett Kaminski of Nor-Mal International attended a Hydrostatic Drive Service meeting in Davenport, Iowa at the central region office for International Harvester.

Hergott, Kaminski attend Harvester Iowa seminar

Gene Hergott and Brett Kaminski from Nor-Mal International, Inc., Antioch, recently attended a Hydrostatic Drive Service meeting in Davenport, Iowa at the Central Regional Office for International Harvester.

Hydrostatic drive is a unique innovation that uses hydraulics to propel the machine either forward or backward without the need to change gears. Since no gears are used as in conventional transmissions, the operator has infinite speed control of the tractor.

Full engine horsepower may be utilized at all times with this new drive system, even at creeping ground speeds when required.

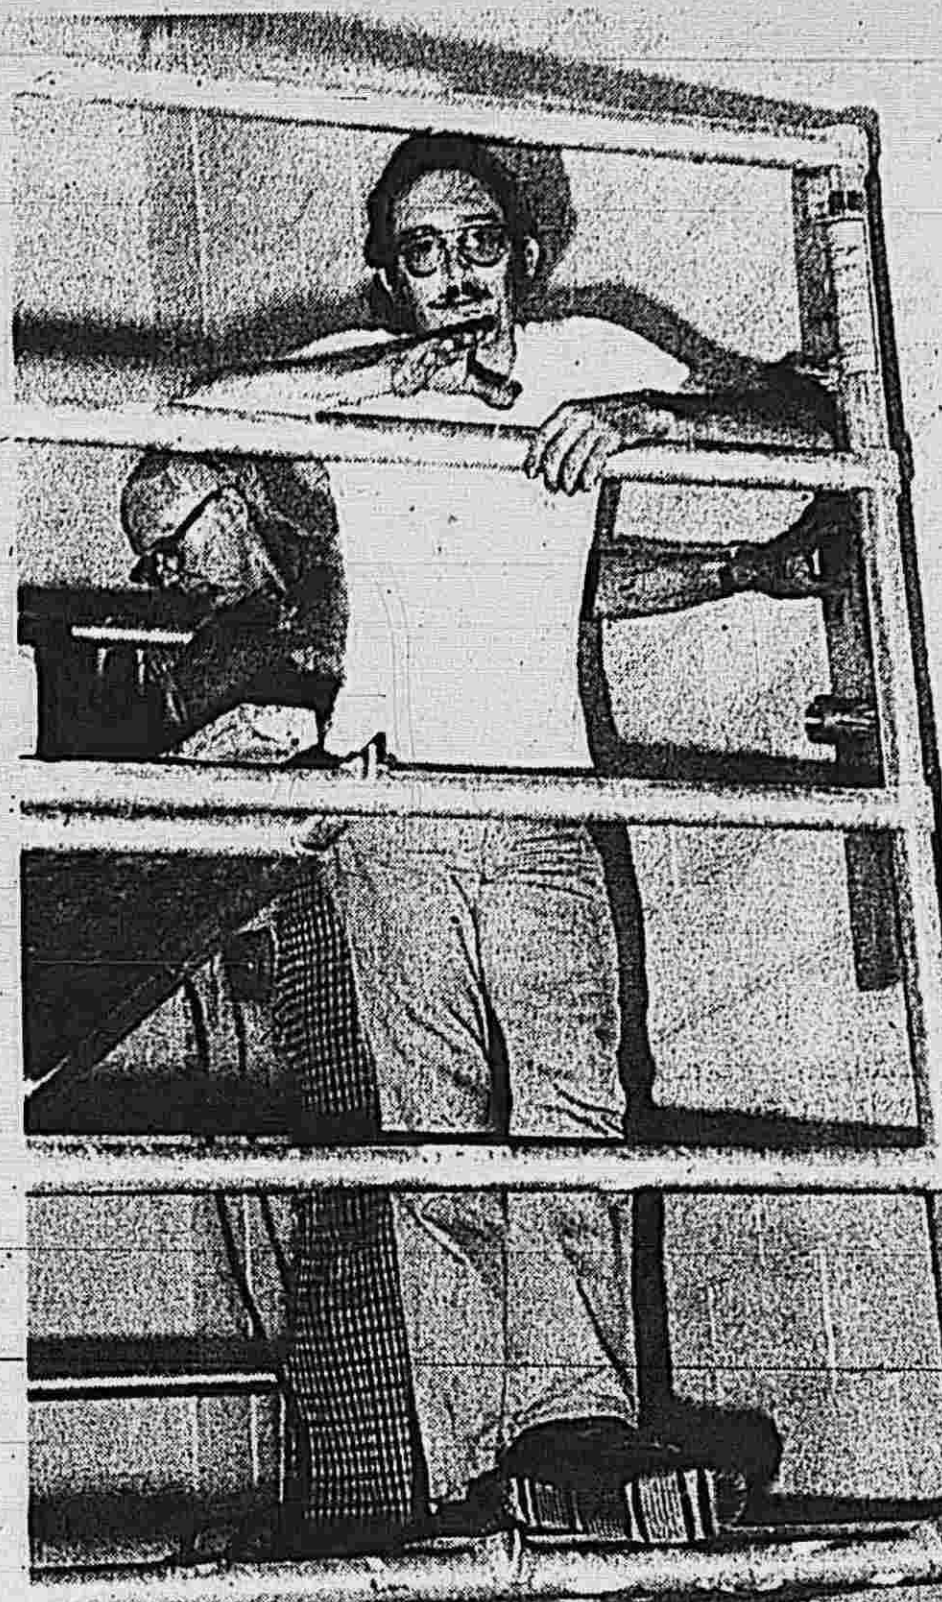

Since maximum use is being made of all available horsepower, hydrostatic drive gets more work done per gallon of fuel used and is a most desirable drive system in our farm economy today.

An IH farm equipment dealer's ability to analyze and correctly service any operating problem or malfunction, is vital to the farmers' productivity. This was the subject of the Service Training program provided IH dealers on the IH hydrostatic Drive Systems.

Resignations were Mrs. Jocelyn Booth, who is taking a position at a local high school; Janet I. Reich, a fourth grade teacher at Oakland, took a position in Lake Forest and Rick Bryan, Antioch Upper Grade, took a position at Warren High School.

McDonald's prices went down

McDonald's Restaurants in Des Plaines, Round Lake Heights and Antioch, owned and operated by Alex Karis and Christine Schenk have reduced by 10 per cent the price of regular hamburgers and cheeseburgers, became effective August 21.

Karis and Schenk said the price reduction was a positive step in aiding consumers combat inflation, especially families with young children, which have already been the backbone of its business.

"We plan to hold this price reduction for as long as commodity prices remain favorable," Karis and Schenk said. "Further price adjustments depend on future market conditions."

50 YEARS AGO: AUGUST 29, 1929

Facing a six month jail sentence under the debtors act, F. Lee Middendorf has left his home here, taking his wife and household belongings with him. Middendorf and his partner, William Huber, owned Antioch Motor Sales until both men were charged with obtaining money fraudulently by placing mortgages on automobiles not belonging to them. Before Huber disappeared, leaving his partner to face the music alone, he had been a deputy sheriff for a year until the sheriff recalled his star.

Middendorf fought for two months and carried his case through three courts in an effort to evade a jail sentence but lost on a writ of habeas corpus.

If an early start means anything in politics, Lester T. Tiffany is going to make a formidable contestant for the office of sheriff. He has already announced his candidacy even though the race is seven months away.

Another of Antion J. Cermak's parties, famous for broiled beefsteaks, soft drinks, golf and all shades of political gossip, was held here Tuesday when the attendance exceeded that of any former roundup held at the Cook County chairman's home.

Among notables present was Sidney Smith, of Andy Gump fame Jack Dempsey was invited but found it impossible to be present. He was suspended from the Actor's Equity for alleged disloyalty during the recent unsuccessful effort to unionize members of the theatrical profession employed in taking pictures.

"As handy as a pocket in a shirt," was the remark of R.D. Coger, old time printer, after he had looked over the equipment and efficient arrangement of machinery and type in the Antioch New office yesterday.

Antioch will be in Chicago city limits in 50 years, predicted Daniel Burnham, president of the Chicago Regional Planning Assn.

"The Chicago of fifty years ahead may not be the largest city in the world in numbers of people, but it will be the best arranged, the best planned and protected and the ideal place in which to live, if the program is carried out."

Antioch's oldest resident, Mrs. Sarah Emmonts, is ninety-one years young. She moved to Bristol at age five and then the family took up residence on a farm near Antioch one and one-half years later. In 1969 she married Rockwell Emmons and moved to the village of Antioch. At that time there was only seven log cabins.

News, Harbor Ridge sponsor golf tourney

The Antioch News will be co-sponsor of the Antioch Open Golf Tournament to be played Sept. 29 and 30 at Harbor Ridge Country Club, Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Rd.,

Publisher William Schroeder announced. There will be four divisions in the 36 hole amateur-affair to be determined by handicap. Entry fee is $25 which covers green fees, trophies and prizes.

A committee headed by Nick Teister of Loon Lake, president of the Harbor Ridge Golf Club, is in charge of arrangements.

Members of the tournament committee include Jim Urban, Harbor Ridge pro; Robert Knourek and Bill Collins, both of Lake Villa and Andy Anderson, Antioch.

Teister said that verification by a club professional or a golf league secretary will be acceptable for placement in the following flights: championship, 0-8; Class A, 9-13; Class B, 14-19 and Class C, 20 and over.

Faith School opens with more students

Enrollment is up by 18 students this fall at Faith Evangelical Lutheran School and the faculty and volunteers are completing the finishing touches in preparation for classes to begin this week.

The school's 104 students will be divided into classrooms with two grades per room, which Principal Melvin Schwartz finds favorable.

"When the teacher works with one class, the others study and learn independent skills," he said. They are encouraged to look for help from reference resources first, and the independence they learn is "beneficial as they grow up to be adults," he added.

A FEATURE OF the school is that the congregation has an active interest in it. Concerned church members voluntarily provide labor on the uncompleted portions of the building and take turns working in the church office.

Schwartz said he also has been told that women in the congregation have volunteered to help "those that need special attention" in school in the past. The congregation is "quite active and busy" and participates in many programs, he said.

This year work on the school library is being undertaken. A large room will house the books and tables and two smaller rooms will be used as a conference room and the librarian's office. "We are looking forward to making it a central part of the curriculum," Schwartz said.

When the doors to school open at 8:30 a.m., students recite memory work they learned until classes begin at 8:45, he said. "Each class starts off the day with religious instruction" and there is a "religious approach in all subjects," he said.

ALTHOUGH NO uniform is required, students are encouraged to wear "school-type clothing," with an emphasis on neatness and cleanliness.

The curriculum includes a "fairly heavy phonics" study, which is taken up in grades one through three. The "importance of reading skills" are continued from kindergarten up to eighth grade.

Social studies, penmanship, science, English, spelling, art, music and physical education round out the curriculum.

Recesses are staggered so that "not all the children are out at the same time," the principal added.

"ABOUT HALF of the students ride the bus to school," and the other half ride in cars or car pools. "Not too many walk because of the busy streets," Schwartz said of the Rte. 83 location of the school.

Plans for the coming year include singing frequently for the church and holding a Christmas Eve service.

Soccer and volleyball teams will begin in the spring and teams for boys and girls basketball are also planned.

An entertainment night will be featured in April, which "varies from individual class efforts to an operetta."

"Better than 90 per cent of the students are from the church," Schwartz said. "When they are not members of the church, we ask for a tuition."

Three new faculty members have joined the two remaining faculty at the school.

THE NEW FACULTY members are Mrs. Nadine Harris, kindergarten; Mr.

Richard Baumgart, grades seven and eight and Principal Schwartz, who will also teach grades five and six.

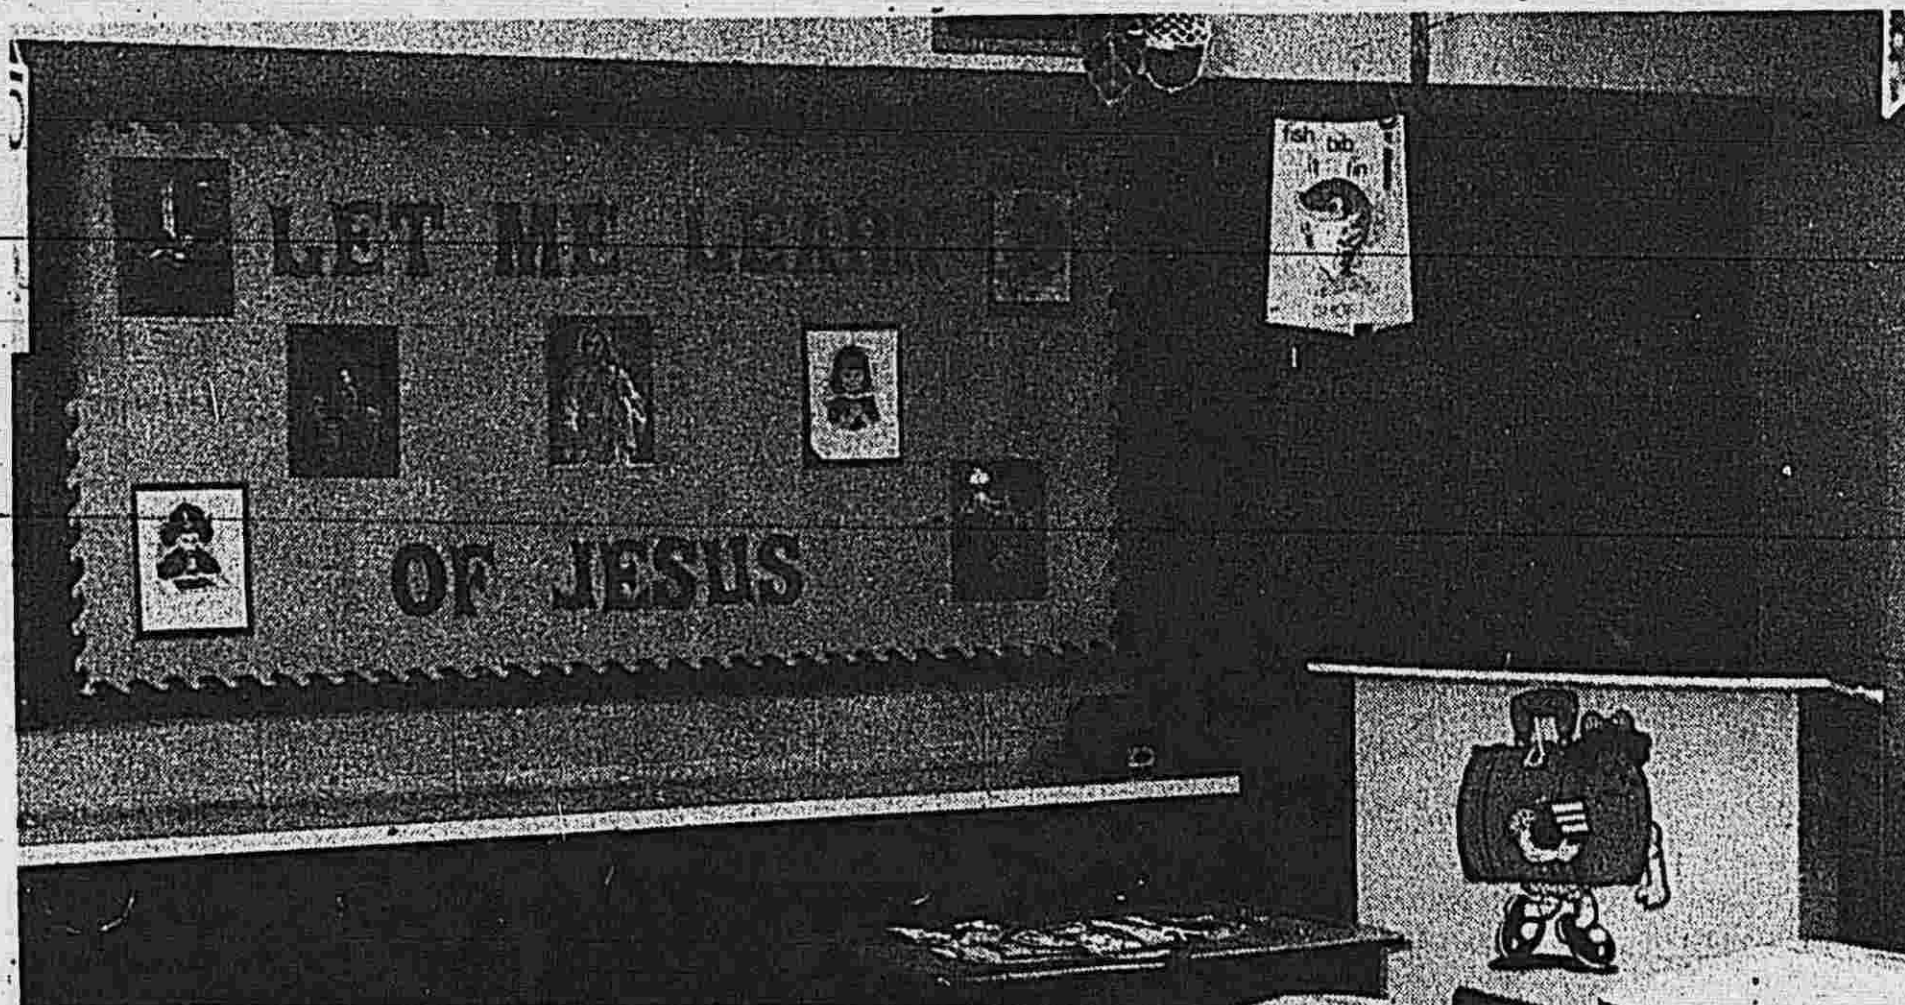

Remaining from last year are Miss Vicki Weyenbert, grades one and two and Miss Terri Kemper, grades three and four.

YOUNG PERSON IN INDUSTRY

Painting china is Sandy's line

(Editor's note: Following is the first story in a series acknowledging the efforts of young people in industry in the Antioch area).

For some people, working at the same place for 10 years can get boring, but for Sandy Prestay at Pickard China, her job has remained a challenge because of the variety and difficulty of the skills she has learned.

Mrs. Prestay, 29, has held four different jobs and is "highly skilled at all of them," said Even Morgan, executive vice president of the company. "She's done a very nice job with us," he added.

Currently holding a position in the lining department, Mrs. Prestay has developed the needed skill for lining, one of the most difficult crafts at Pickard. She paints by hand gold and platinum lines on pottery, although she "never even painted a picture."

THE WORK "takes a lot of patience," she said. Centering the piece on a wheel, she turns it by hand and brushes on the precious metal with an artist's brush.

Although she's been on the lining job for almost three years, she still finds it rewarding. "Everyday I find out something different," she said.

At first, "I didn't think I'd really be able to do it," Mrs. Prestay said. "I really wanted to, so I stuck with it and didn't get discouraged.

"It's not easy, but it's interesting and I really like it," she added.

WHEN SHE began lining, she was nervous about wasting the precious metals she works with, "but you get used to it. The more you line, the easier it gets," Mrs. Prestay said.

Lining has not become an automatic job for her, perhaps in part because of its difficulty and her enjoyment of working at Pickard.

"I like the people that work here," she said. "It's a very friendly place to work."

The administration is "very fair with employees and because it is a small place, they take an interest in you, too," she said.

BECAUSE OF HER skill, Mrs. Prestay has developed an interest in well-made china. "I can look at things and see if it's done well or not." She no longer needs to look at the trade mark at the bottom of the piece to determine its quality.

She has even started a collection of plates at home and has collectors books of limited edition plates.

When she began working at Pickard in 1969, her first job was to prepare plates for etching and was called asphalt work.

Decal work was the next step she learned. Transferring decals onto plates requires accuracy which she was able to use in her next job, finishing pottery.

AS A FINISHER, she made sure the pottery was smooth and ready for the first firing.

In her spare time, Mrs. Prestay enjoys activities ranging from doing macrame work to going to the races with her husband Fran, who is a stock car driver.

BLUE RIBBON WINNER — First Bank of Antioch purchased Jerry Wells, left, blue ribbon winner. Representing bank is Carolyn Van Patten, right. Jerry is member of Future Farmers 4-H Club. Swine will be used for 4-H Pancake Breakfast in November. Proceeds from event go to 4-H student exchange fund.

Every degree you raise the temperature of an air-conditioned space, means a 5% savings on the operating cost. Or put another way, every degree you lower it adds 5% to the cost. Most people are comfortable at 78°. Most people are comfortable with the money they save at that temperature too.

AN AIR CONDITIONER IS ONLY AS GOOD AS ITS EER.

The machine's Energy Efficiency Ratio (EER) tells you if it makes good use of the energy it consumes. Be sure to compare numbers—the higher, the better.

DIRT CAN HURT.

The filter on your air conditioner has done a good job if it's dirty. But a dirty filter makes it harder for the machine to do a good job. Check your owner's manual on how to clean or replace the filter. Then do it regularly.

KEEP THE HEAT OUT.

Don't let it in in the first place. Pull the shades or curtains in rooms that receive direct sunlight. There'll be less work for the air conditioner to do.

MAYBE IT'S TIME FOR A TIMER.

You can come home to a nice cool house without leaving your room air conditioner on the whole time you're out. Turn it off when you leave, but set a timer—one made specially for air conditioners—to turn it on an hour before you return. You'll be just as cool, but you'll use a lot less electricity.

Gardner keeps pool from going under

Making sure the Antioch Aqua Center is fit to swim takes a lot of work and Nancy Gardner, pool manager, sees that everything is taken care of.

A swimmer since she was a youngster, Nancy used to "live at the pool whether it was raining or not," she said.

She rode her bike to the pool since second grade, although it was about four miles from her home. At the age of 11 she joined a swim team and in high school in Arlington Heights, swam on the school swim team.

Nancy, who lives in Antioch, is responsible for sanitizing, testing and backwashing the pool, as well as scheduling the center's office and concession workers.

AT THE BEGINNING OF

the season, Nancy painted the pool and the buildings. She also taught advanced lifesaving.

Her favorite parts of her job are working with people, making decisions and scheduling. Maintaining the mechanics of the pool are a special interest the athletic 21-year-old.

Nancy was surprised to find such cooperation among her high-school age co-workers, even though the center has no adding machines, requiring a system "based on total honesty."

The workers are "really honest and take initiative," she said. "There's no question about it."

"EVERYBODY WORKS together and they're all good friends, which is kind of unusual," she added.

Nancy would like to see more programs at the pool, including adult swimming classes at night and two lifesaving classes instead of one.

The water at the pool is always clean and maintained at a certain temperature. Although the pool is 22 years old, it "runs really well," she said.

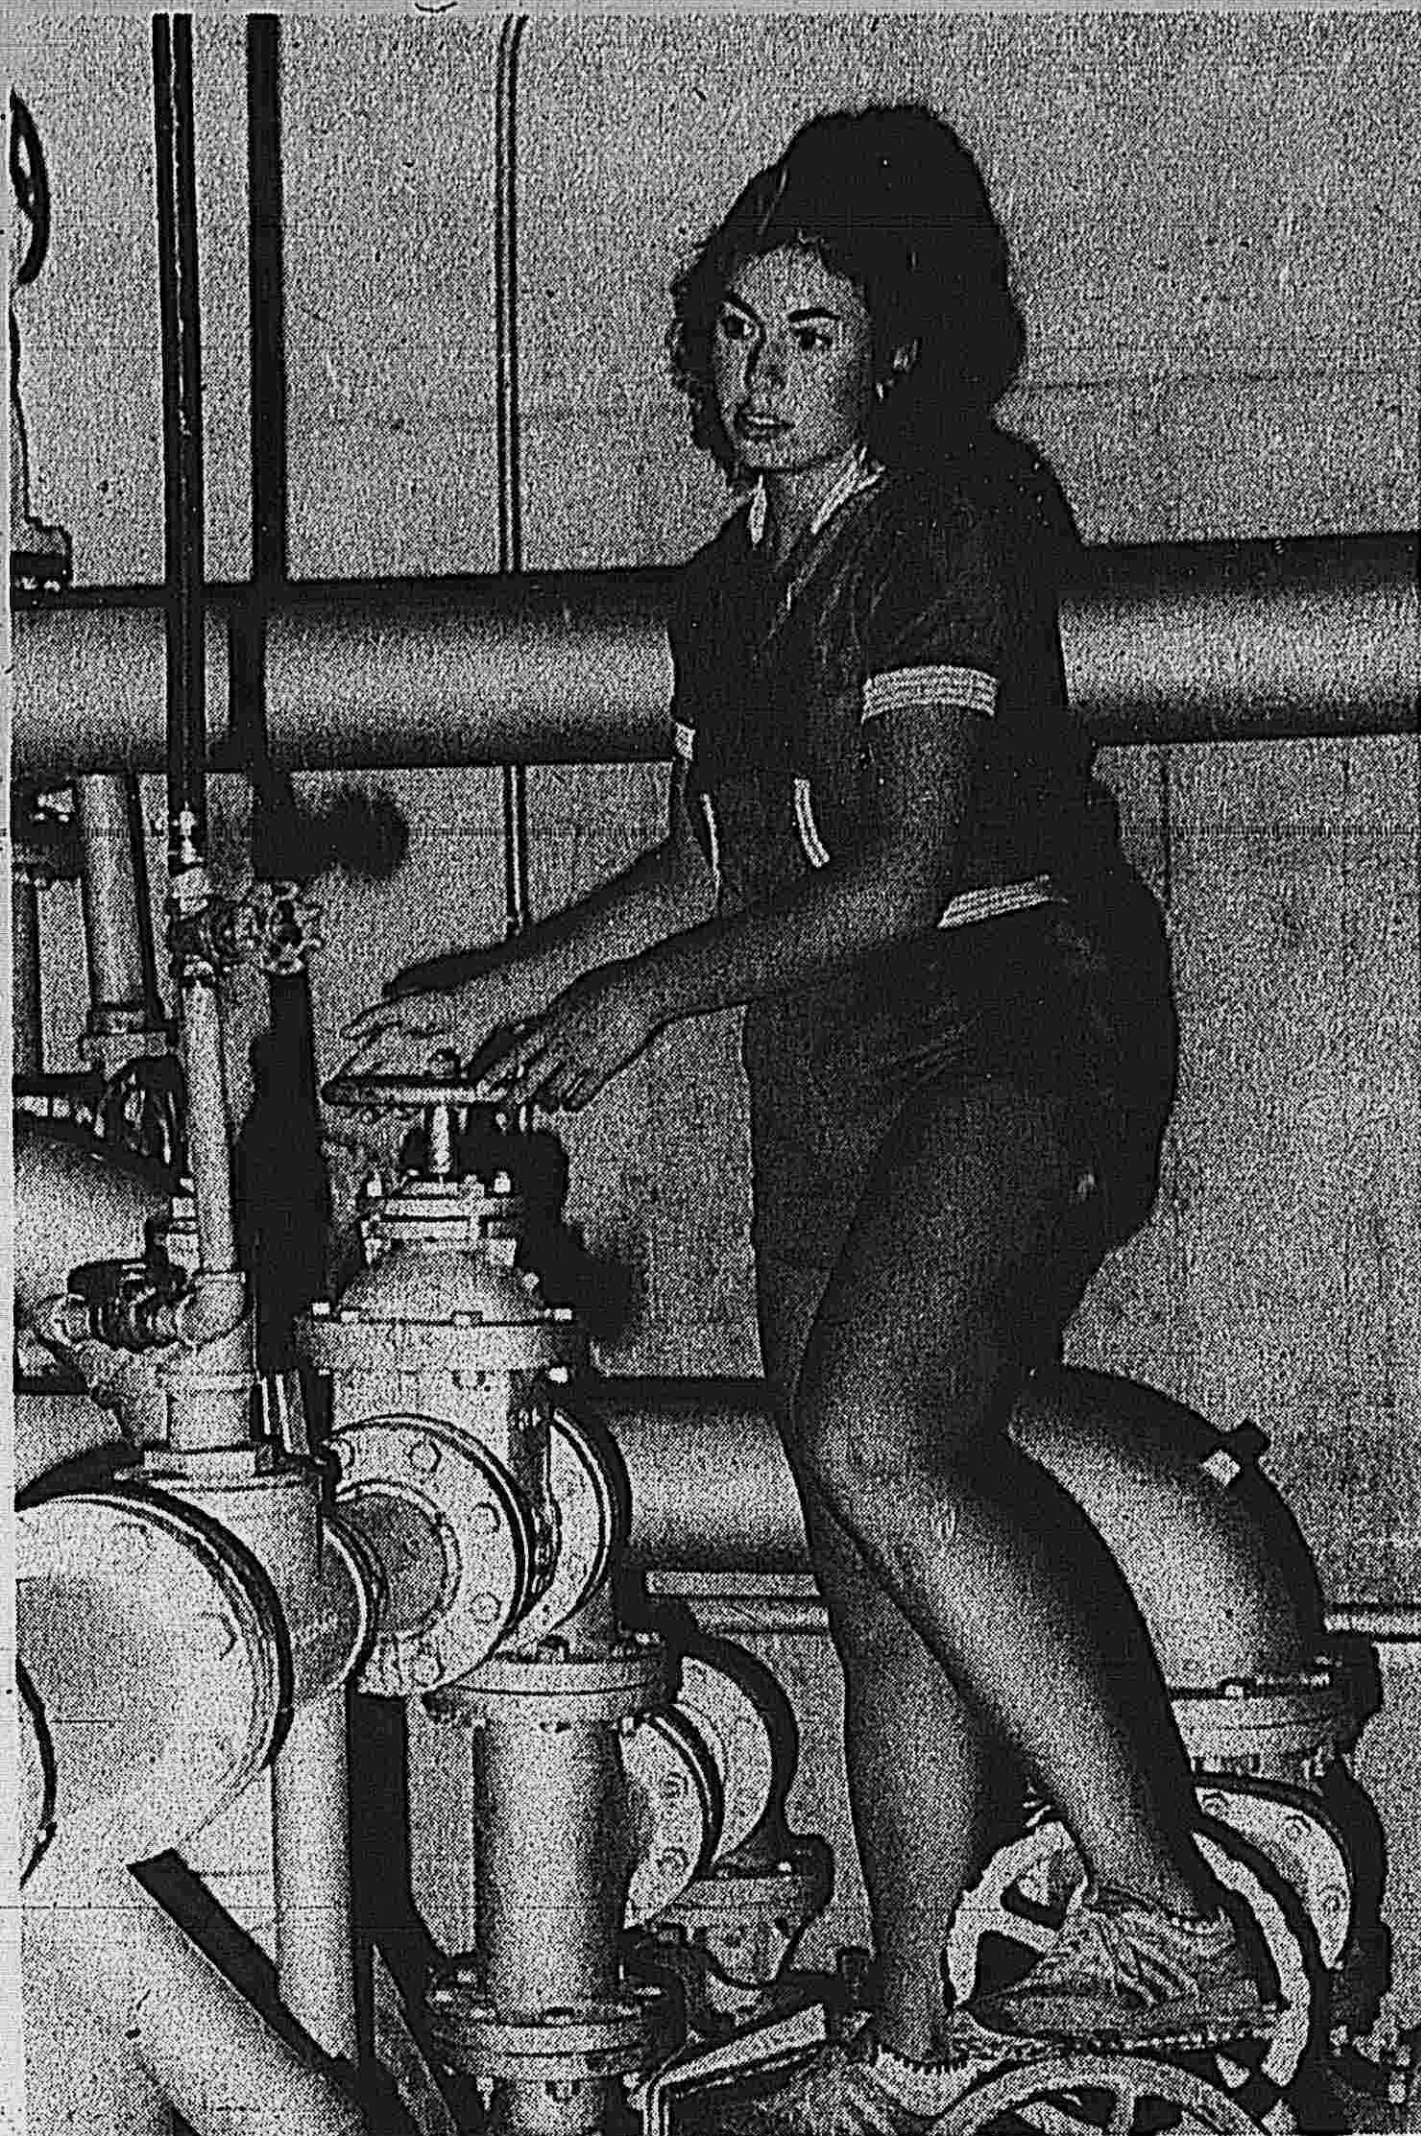

She is a certified Water Safety Instructor and has taken required lifesaving courses. First aid and CPR courses are included on her list of achievements.

SHE ALSO RECEIVED an award from the Red Cross for being in the organization for seven years.

An outdoor lover, Nancy hopes to teach skiing this winter and continue her swimming education by taking a course which will certify her to teach Water Safety Instruction.

Nancy is now enjoying herself and taking a break from her three majors at the University of Iowa—Iowa City. She is getting ready to go back school next year.

Interests beside her majors in marketing, management and German include running four miles a day and camping.

Teachers' settlement ratified

The Antioch High School Board of Education ratified the settlement reached in negotiations with the teaching staff.

The beginning salary was raised from $10,850 to $11,300. The salary increase for teachers averages 8.4 per cent and the total package including fringe benefits amounts to a 9 per cent increase.

Approved were the employment of Sarah Redd to teach Art and Beth Behne as receptionist-switchboard operator.

The tentative budget for the 1979-80 school year was approved for display. The budget will be shown in the general office at the high school until the public hearing is held Thursday, Sept. 27 at 8 p.m. This is the date of the regular September Board of Education meeting.

Changes in the ACHS courses and student guide, teachers manual, general information manual, administrative staff manual, and deans guide were reviewed and approved.

CANNABIS

When Glen H. Samson, 18, of rural Antioch was stopped for a stop sign violation, he was arrested for open transportation of liquor and possession of cannabis. The arresting officer found a partly smoked marijuana cigarette on the dash board of Samson's vehicle.

Antioch anglers are tops

Antioch anglers made one of their best showings of the summer, capturing two first places in fourth week action of the 1979 Chain-O'-Lakes Fishing Derby.

Chris Spicer, 640 Anita Ave., landed a first place striper while fishing in Lake Marie.

Wes Jones, 41491 Addison Ln., near Rte. 173, worked

Lake Marie for the week's biggest northern pike. Jones took his winner Sunday while Chris hooked the week's top striper Saturday.

The $30,000 contest ends Labor Day. Among the sponsors is the State Bank of Antioch plus local resorts.

Jones, who is employed as a design engineer at OMC, Waukegan, regularly fishes the upper Chain. His son, Danny, 16, also is an avid fisherman.

Mrs. Jones joked that the two men in her household are fishing fans, but she always lands the job of cleaning the catch and preparing it for the table.

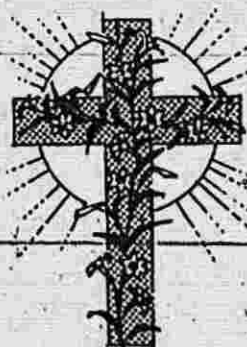

Jones' northern will be in the running for designation as the largest northern of the season caught in the Chain O' Lakes and will be eligible for an electronic fish finder that will be presented for the largest northern.

Spicer will be eligible for a 1979 Johnson 6 H.P. motor to be awarded to the angler bringing in the largest striper of the five-week contest. This year fishermen producing winners in the small fish categories will be awarded new Johnson outboards.

WEEKLY WINNER—Wes Jones of Antioch, who makes his living designing boats, proved that he knows something about fishing too, by landing the biggest northern of the week in fourth week competition of Chain O' Lakes Fishing Derby. Jones took winner from Lake Marie with a artificial lure Sunday, August 26.

Park lights discussed

The Antioch Village Board discussed installation of lights at Williams and Jensen Parks during a committee meeting.

Village trustees are expected to make a decision at the next meeting of the board.

It will cost $950 to install a light on an existing pole on the Little League field in Williams Park and extend service to it, reported Walter Shepard, Supt. of Public Works.

Because of problems with vandalism, the proposed light will shine over a parking lot near the field.

POSSESSION

Thomas Berkley, 18, of rural Antioch, was arrested for possession of cannabis and transportation of open liquor when he was stopped for wrong lane usage. Berkley posted bond and is awaiting a court appearance.

The groom-elect is a 1967 graduate of Tremper High School. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1967 until 1973 and is presently employed as a machine operator for Anaconda American Brass of Kenosha.

Bowling program to roll

The 1979-80 Youth Bowling Program at Antioch Bowling Lanes will start on Saturday, Sept. 22.

This is later this year but it is not too early to sign up. Pre-registration forms are now available at Antioch Bowling Lanes and it is suggested these be filled out prior to the first day of bowling.

YOU MAY sign up for the next three weeks at Antioch Bowl Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. if this is not convenient, call Lois Hartman at 395-1155 and set up a time with her.

Bowlers wanting to bowl on a certain team or with certain friends, should indicate this at the time you sign up so there won't be any disappointments later on. The teams are made up before the first day of bowling.

There are three age groups in which the teams are made up; Majors are ages 16-18; Juniors, ages 13-15; and Preps, ages 8-12.

The Majors and Juniors bowl at 9 a.m. and the Preps bowl at noon. It is not necessary to have bowled previously to be enrolled in a league. Coaches are available for the beginner as well as the more experienced bowler. Last year over 280 bowlers signed up.

TROPHIES ARE awarded in many categories at a youth bowling banquet which is held at the end of the season.

There is a great need of coaches and scorekeepers to help out each week. If you can help out in any way, contact Lois Hartman, youth coordinator, at Antioch Bowling Lanes. Also needed are sponsors which amounts to the cost of five bowling shirts. Anyone interested please contact the bowling lanes.

Camp starts Sept. 18

Antioch Parks and Recreation is starting its first six week session of Camp Crayola Sept. 18.

Every child is asked to bring his or her own rug to sit on, with their name marked on it.

Registration will start Wednesday, August 29 at the park office. It will be on a first come basis.

Hunting course to begin

The Antioch Jaycees will be hosting a shooter education program starting September.

The course is open to boys and girls and will include certification for hunters licences for those old enough.

The training sessions will last six weeks, one night a week. The course ends with parents night where awards and certificates will be awarded. Parents are encouraged to attend as many of the sessions as possible.

The Jaycees will not be charging for the course. For information on the Jaycees call Phil Schaub at 395-3030 or R.J. Utterback at 395-2700.

FINANCIAL NEWS

by Phil
Schaub

Last week, I mentioned that if you make yourself the beneficiary of a trust that you set up, you generally won't get any significant estate tax benefits from it. There are several benefits that you can get however, and I want to discuss some of them this week.

By having property in a trust before you die, you can avoid probate on that part of your estate. Probate is the procedure for distributing the property you own at death. Your will covers only your property whose transfer is not controlled by any other document, such as a trust agreement. When you set up a trust, you name the beneficiary or beneficiaries. You can also name succeeding beneficiaries, people who will become the beneficiaries if the primary beneficiary dies. Because the trust document is controlling the disposition of the property in the trust, the property does not have to go through probate.

Many people are perfectly competent to handle their money but choose not to do so. Like using a travel agent to make vacationing simpler, many people use a trustee to make their financial life simpler. Instead of investing your money yourself, you can give it to a trustee and let him handle it for you. You can simply collect the income he generates instead of worrying about exactly how to invest the money yourself. A professional trustee often has the time, experience, and knowledge to invest money very wisely. Where you or I could make, let's say 8 per cent on our money, a professional trustee might be able to make 10 or even 10 and a half per cent on that same money. In this kind of arrangement, a trustee can sometimes make enough extra income to pay his own fee. Thus, you can have him do the work for you and it could end up costing you nothing for the trust services. Of course, trustees usually won't guarantee any such results.

Trusts are sometimes used to shift income tax burdens. This has to be done very carefully and you have to watch out for the gift tax laws, but they can have great advantages. For example, let's say that you have $10,000 in savings and you don't need the income from that money. You'd like to give the income from the $10,000 to your child. Before you can give him any income, you have to pay the income taxes on it. You can minimize this trip through the income tax wringer with a trust. By putting the $10,000 in a trust for a set number of years, following all the rules, and naming your child the beneficiary, you can give him the income without having to pay income taxes on it first. Of course he pays the income taxes, but most likely, he will have more spendable income from the money than if you had paid the taxes and given him what was left over.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I noticed that one of the traveling young ladies of our town is home for a spell.

Jody Petrovsky was in the newspaper office to get some credential worked out so she can cover the Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, New York. The Antioch News will have its own reporter at the Olympics. Isn't that something?

After attending a wedding in Pittsburgh and staying at home for a few days, Jody is going to start job hunting in the broadcast field. Good Luck, Jody.

If you turned out for the Chamber of Commerce Moonlight Madness, you had some fun. I left my old nightgown in the trunk, but Cari O'Neil was one of the grownups dressed for the occasion. Cari, who is a member of the Antioch News advertising staff, borrowed some pajamas from her hubby to dress the part.

Thirty-eight women volunteered their help during the American Cancer Society Tag Day. Good going all you volunteers! I saw you working hard during Moonlight Madness, and when the results come in, I'm sure it will be labeled a success.

Registration for the Antioch's new Cadet Girl Scout troop has been going very well and Mrs. Carol Paddock said she is expecting a troop of up to 20 girls.

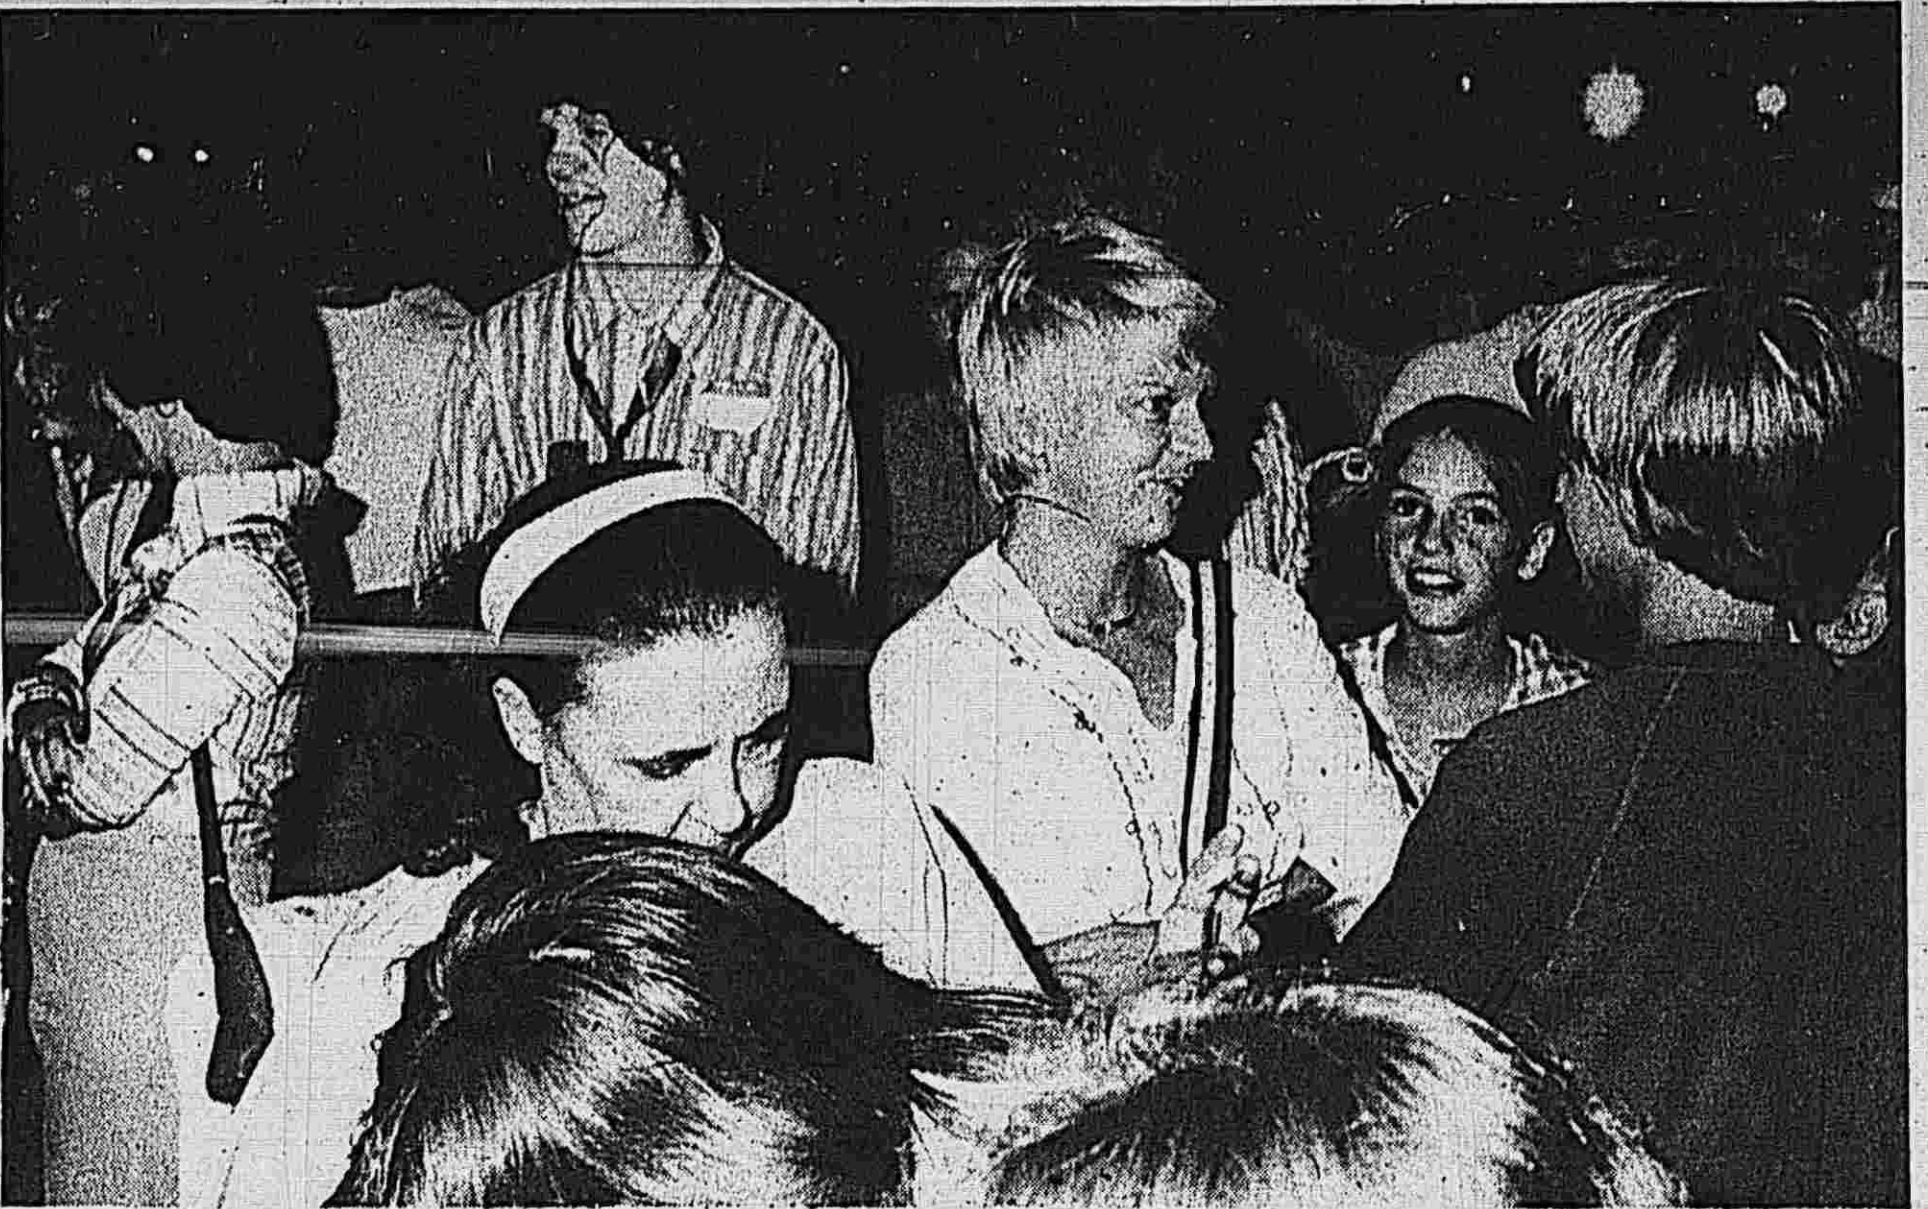

Kinda nice to have former Mayor Bob Wilton back in our midst as a resident. Bob had been residing in Mundelein and is back in the family homestead. Bob's return brings up the recollection that Antioch has more former mayors living in the community than any town in the county. Six, I believe. We'll start listing 'em one of these days.

If you're interested in good grooming (your old Annie Mae always tries to look her best), you'll enjoy getting acquainted with Jay Garner, new hair designer at Hair Gallery, North Ave., in the Sodman family mini shopping center. Jay is a specialist in personalized styling.

I stopped in Park-Ave. Mall the other day and found a delightful new shop, Yellow Brick Road, with clothes and all sorts of stuff for infants to toddlers. Just what our town needed! The owners are Ginny Henning and Pat Folbrink, two on-the-ball people who will be assets to our business community.

Any day now we expect to see Jim Lumber hiking back and forth on Lake St. Jim hopes that his latest bout with the medics (minor surgery in Lake Forest Hospital) will be his last so he can devote full attention to legal matters.

As a newspaper gal, Annie Mae feels kind of sheepish the way the out-of-town press has been treating our village in the wake of the storm tragedy. Call it news, but it doesn't serve any purpose. We'll be back next week.

BERT METZ

OFFICER OF THE WEEK

Metz is prize shooter

Bert Metz is a relative newcomer to the Antioch Police Dept., but he enjoys his work.

"Most people are nice even if you I'm giving them a ticket," he said. He was surprised that some have even thanked him.

"Then there's the other type," he added.
Responsibilities as a patrolman include making traffic stops. Metz prefers to set up radar "where kids are around," so he can explain those dangers to drivers when he stops them.

HAVING GROWN UP in the area, Metz attended Antioch Community High School and was in construction work before joining the force in July of last year.

Metz is also the best shot of the department at the shooting range. Being a good shot
"has come naturally to me," Metz said.

Being a police officer is "not the kind of job everyone would enjoy, but it's interesting,"

he said.

An active sportsman, duck hunting and fishing are his favorite spare time activities.
Last year's duck hunting season was 50 days and he hunted 46 times.

HE IS A member of Ducks Unlimited, an organization supporting waterfowl preservation and restoring wetlands and marshes.

Lake Michigan is his favorite spot to fish, although he hasn't found much time to get there this year.

He owns a boat, complete with downriggers, outriggers and an electronic fish finder and has a charter license.

Square dancing is another of his interests.
He was president of a squaredancing club in Johnsburg and even attended the national convention in Milwaukee.

Metz and his wife Judy have one daughter,
Ann, who works in Round Lake.

St. Peter's tells free meal policy

St. Peter's School announced its policy for free meals reduced price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch, and Special Milk Programs.

Families that do not meet the criteria, but have expenses such as unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 per cent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, or disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office.

The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

To discourage the possibility of misrepresentation, the application forms contain a statement above

the space for signature certifying that all information furnished in the application is true and correct. An additional statement is added to warn that the application is being made in connection with the receipt of Federal funds, that school officials may, for cause, verify the information in the application, and that deliberate misrepresentation of information may subject the applicant to prosecution under applicable State and criminal statutes.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for free or reduced price meals for them, the family should contact the school.

If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size changes, the family should contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the children of the family eligible for reduced price meals, or for additional benefits such as free meals if the family income falls at or below the levels set.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In the operation of child nutrition programs, no child will be discriminated against because of his/her race, sex, color or national origin.

Under the provisions of the policy, the principal will review applications and determine eligibility.

If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he/she may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If he/she wishes to make a formal appeal, he/she may make a request either orally or in writing to Thomas Merkel,
P.O. Box 248, Antioch, (395-5344) for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure. A copy of the complete policy is on file in the school office and may be reviewed by any interested party.

INSURANCE INFORMATION

I have property which has sustained damage. Who do I report the damage to, the agent or the company? How long will it be before the claim is paid?

Rather than try to contact the company itself, you should contact the agent who wrote the policy. This procedure will usually save time since the agent has all the policy information necessary to report your claim. It depends upon the type of claim as to when it will be paid. If the damage is a result of a major storm, it sometimes takes slightly longer to service due to the excessive numbers of claims turned in. Normally you should be contacted within a week's time. If the damage is quite extensive, your agent should be made aware of this fact. It might be necessary to make immediate, temporary repairs to prevent further damage.
